

Stage 1 Determine Tactical Priority

Scenario: Skill drill to determine the highest priority threat and non threats. Get the bad guy with a gun first.

Course of Fire: Load firearm with six rounds. Start in P1 facing up range, ie back to targets. Turn draw and engage target with the gun first with two rounds. Engage remaining threats in any order with two rounds each. Slide lock reload and move to P2 to reengage targets in any order with two rounds. Pickup shots are allowed From P2. Best four hits will be scored.

*NOTE previous shooter will move the gun and non threat indicators.

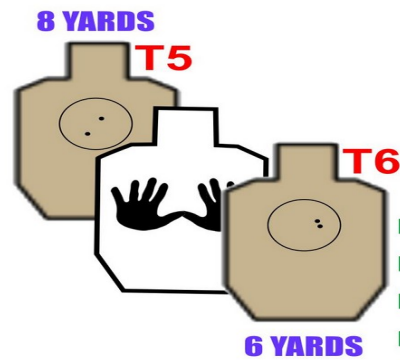

12 rounds minimum. Procedural penalty if you engage a target with more than two rounds from P1.

Stage 2

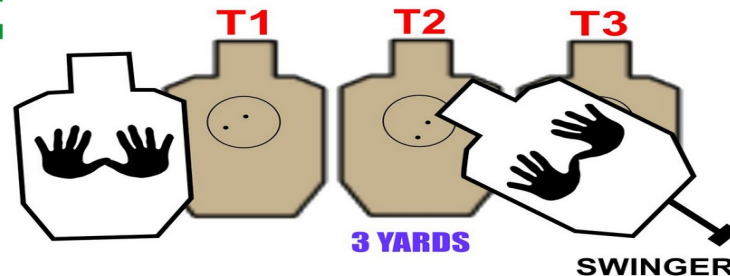

DISGRUNTLED EMPLOYEES

Start Position: Seated, both hands on table, swinger cable in hand. Gun loaded and placed in box on the table with muzzle pointing down range. Spare mags on table next to gun as if in a drawer. Scenario: Due to budget cuts you had to lay off a lot of employees. While going over some TPS reports, a number of disgruntled employees barge into your office with a couple execs held hostage at gunpoint. Open the drawer (pull the cord), grab your gun and take out the threats. Be careful not to hit the hostages as they wrestle to escape! Stage Procedure: At the start signal, pull the cord with your shooting hand to simulate opening a drawer - this activates the swinger. Retrieve your gun and engage targets T1-T3 with two (2) shots each in tactical sequence, * using the desk as cover. (Shooter MUST stay seated or go to a knee.) Then move to both of the P2s (in any order) and engage targets T4-T6 with two (2) shots each in tactical priority (slicing the pie), using cover.

UNLIMITED ROUNDS
Best two hits will be scored on each target.

 IMAGINARY WALL ***
* Tactical Sequence means...
"BOARDING HOUSE RULES APPLY"
for T1, T2 and T3. Each must get one shot before any get seconds

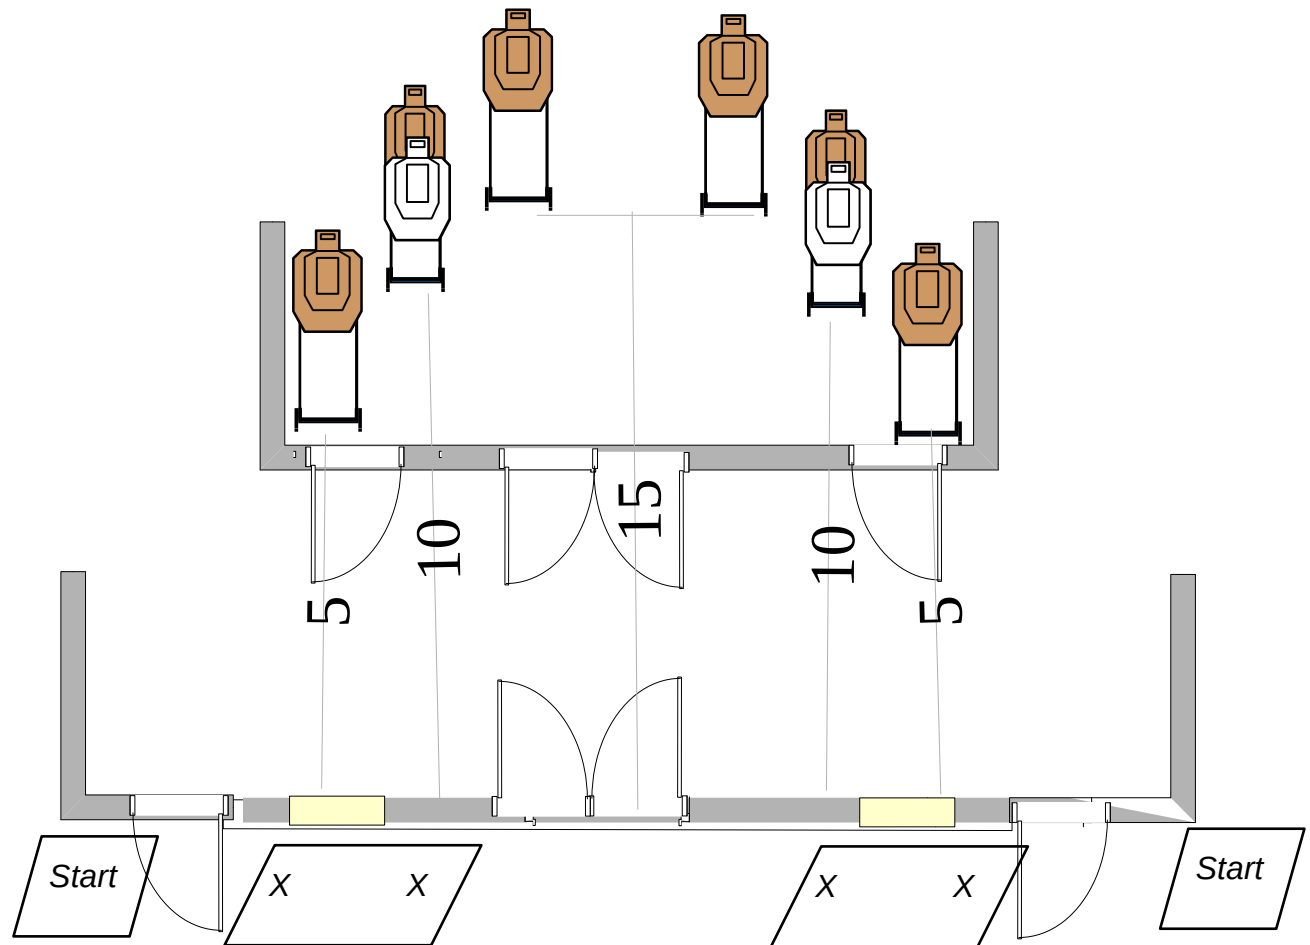

Stage 3 Far to near and back again
